

SERMON Q's

The Praying Savior
March 3, 2019
Luke 22:31-46

1. What is one way you are/have been overwhelmed by your own frailty, weakness, or inadequacy?
2. What are your typical ways of dealing with these difficult emotions (i.e. do you tend to turn inward, get despondent, dig deeper, blame others, give up, etc.)?
3. How have you seen or do you long to see God use failure and repentance in your life to strengthen others and point them to Him?
4. In what way or in what situation are Jesus' prayers for you (especially your faith and repentance) encouraging to you?
5. When have you experienced it being hardest to pray, "Nevertheless, not my will but yours be done"?
6. Read Isaiah 53 together. What is one particular thing you are grateful that Jesus experienced in your place?
7. How does the truth that Jesus has prayed (and suffered and died) in your place encourage you to pray even in your failures?
