

SERMON Q's

A Tale of Two Sinners
March 10, 2019
Luke 22:47-62

1. Can you identify a situation in your life when “silence seemed safer” to you than speaking of Jesus? Why did you feel that way?
2. Do you typically think of sin in terms of breaking a rule or violating a relationship? When you see your sin, who is it primarily against in your mind?
3. How does understanding the relational nature of our sin against God both bring its full weight to us and put us on the proper path of repentance?
4. When you fail and you consider Jesus (you lock eyes with him), what do you imagine his face is saying to you? Is this biblically true?
5. How can we remind each other of both the gravity of our sin and the grace of our Savior?
