Luke 10:25-37

- 1.) Where do you see self-justifying tendencies in your own heart? In what ways do you tend to rely on right answers or relax the law's standard to where you feel you can reach it?

- 2.) Will said relaxing the law's standard to justify ourselves results in missing out on people we are called to love AND missing out on Jesus. How does that work?

- 3.) Think of one "neighbor" in your life who very visibly needs you to show mercy to them and another "neighbor" in your life who needs mercy but doesn't look "needy."

- 4.) In what ways has Jesus been a "good neighbor" to you? How wonderful is it that he did that TO us and FOR us at the same time!

- 5.) Will said, "Jesus meets the standard for us not so that we can ignore it but so that we can follow Jesus on the path of sacrificially loving neighbor." What is the first "But ..." that comes to your mind when you hear this? Where does your heart object to the high standard of the law of neighbor love?
