Luke 11:1-4

- 1.) What is the hardest thing about forgiveness for you? Consider both what is hard about experiencing God's forgiveness and what is hard about expressing that forgiveness to others.

- 2.) Ken Sande says forgiveness is a "costly activity." Explain in your own words what it means to absorb someone else's debt. When has this been hard for you in your life?

- 3.) When you consider the debt that you owe to God, what things stick out most prominently in your mind? Remember to consider sins of commission and sins of omission as well.

- 4.) Andrew Murray said, "As bread is the first need of the body, so forgiveness for the soul. And the provision for the one is as sure as for the other." What makes you most grateful about Jesus' full payment of your debt?

- 5.) If Jesus has fully paid for all my sins already, why does he call me to continue praying, "Father, forgive us our sins"? How does that impact your ongoing relationship with God?
