Luke 11:37-54

1. What impact does a passage clearly directed at Jewish leadership have on you?
2. In what ways do we feel above the rebuke of Jesus in these verses?
3. Think about your traditions (family, racial, political, etc.). In what ways do you (potentially) burden the Word of God? Are there ways in which others might perceive you as burdening the Word of God?
4. The scribes/lawyers see themselves as implicated in the pharisaical condemnations of Jesus. What does it feel like to have guilt by association? When it comes to matters of faith, do you tend to defend yourself? Do you prefer to stand to criticism? Why or why not?
5. Racial reconciliation is a main focus at Southwood. What are your feelings toward this passage in regards to racial reconciliation?
6. Name some potential benefits to extra-biblical conviction.
7. Name some potential downfalls to extra-biblical conviction.
