HINT: Will talked about this in terms of the importance of keeping our theology and our living connected. The priority of love is another good answer.

3.) Can you recall examples of truth that Paul applies to life in the book of Ephesians?

HINT: Think particularly of truth he teaches in the first 3 chapters that he applies in the last 3 chapters.

4.) What does the letter call on the church to do in response to their love growing cold? What do you think that would look like? Have you seen repentance rekindle love in a relationship?

5.) Whose repentance are you awaiting today? What would it look like for you (as the one who feels "right") to repent first?

6.) How does seeing the righteousness of Jesus enable someone who loves to be right to repent and love well?
