Emotions of Christmas: Apathy and Awe

December 18, 2016

John 1:14

- 1.) On a scale of 1 (low) to 10 (high), how apathetic do you think you are? NOTE: If you don't care to answer the question, you get an 11!
- 2.) Where does your spiritual apathy tend to come from? Does information overload contribute to it in any way?
- 3.) When was the last time you would have described yourself as "awestruck"? When was the last time you would have described yourself as "awestruck" before God? Does this happen often for you, and what tends to prompt such awe?
- 4.) Will said, "The cross is the goal of the manger." Is that true? What does that show you of God's glory?
- 5.) Take turns sharing truths about Jesus that you marvel at and find astonishing. Perhaps some of the NT Christ hymns will help spark your ideas (e.g. Colossians 1, Philippians 2). Which truth about Jesus is most marvelous to your heart?
- 6.) What will you do (or not do) this week to keep the wonder of the incarnation an active reality in your heart and mind?
- 7.) If you attend an entire worship service and receive no new information, can it be valuable in your life? How have you experienced that reality?
