

SMALL GROUP Q'S

A Treasure-Hunting God

March 4, 2018

Luke 15:1-32

- 1.) In what season or experience of life can you most relate to the “prodigal son” in this parable? In what ways have you wanted to determine your own path, wanted the Father’s things more than the Father, or found the Father’s provision inadequate?

- 2.) Does your heart protest the father’s extravagant welcome as naïve or foolish? What does this teach us about our hearts’ ability to grasp the scandalous, extravagant love of our Father?

- 3.) If you booked a ticket for the “far country” today, what would characterize it? Or to think of it differently, where are you tempted to find the Father’s provision inadequate? What do you long to have different in your life, and where will you find true home?

For more information about Southwood or Small Groups visit: southwood.org