Luke

1. What is one takeaway for your heart and life from the Gospel of Luke? Consider sharing something that has been comforting and something that has been challenging.
2. Jesus' commitment to go to the cross teaches us about Him and about us. What does it show you about yourself, and how does it make you more grateful for your Savior?
3. What is the most remarkable aspect of Jesus' kingdom you see taught or lived in the Gospel of Luke? How does it turn your approach to life upside-down?
4. How do the relationships in your life reflect the values of King Jesus? What might be one way your relationships would look different if you were more shaped by Jesus' priorities?
5. What does it mean in your life to know Jesus rather than merely knowing about him?
6. How does Jesus' passion for you to know him both challenge and encourage you?
