Why Luke?

August 7, 2016

Luke 1:1-4

- 1.) When was the last time you had the opportunity to study through one of the biblical gospels? What did you most benefit from that study?
- 2.) Will told the story of Vince Lombardi's famous "Gentlemen, this is a football" speech. What was the point of that story in regards to the Gospel of Luke in particular?
- 3.) Luke was written for people like us who don't have Jesus all figured out yet. In what ways do you most struggle with questions or doubts about Jesus?
- 4.) What does it mean to have Jesus at the center of our stories? Or to think of it differently, how do we often view the world from a self-centered perspective, and how would it be different to have Jesus at the center?
- 5.) Luke is a gospel where Jesus is clearly portrayed as turning things upside-down, in particular with regard to the way he values people in his kingdom. Which person Will mentioned being valued by Jesus was most surprising or disconcerting to you?
- 6.) If it's so important to have Jesus at the center of everything, how can we best help each other with that as we study through the Gospel according to Luke?
