

SERMON Q's

Hope for the Hopeless
August 25, 2019
Micah 4:1-5:5

1. Where or how specifically in your life do you feel hopeless - weak, over-matched, small, unworthy, etc.?
2. What is your natural tendency when you feel this way - despair completely, seek to improve yourself in some way, turn to God for help/hope? What does that look like for you?
3. How do you process the stark judgment of Micah 2 and 3 with the glorious hope of Micah 4 and 5? Are you confused, overwhelmed, encouraged?
4. Why do you think the Bible talks so much about God making the weak, small, lame, foolish, etc. his people? How does that make you feel?
5. Pick a struggle or idol in your life. What does it look like to “surrender” and “fight” in this area in light of the hope of your God? In other words, how could your repentance not become penance and yet still have fruit?
6. What is something/someone you long to see made right with God that seems impossible or hopeless? How can others pray for you in that hope?
