Roadkill Christianity?
October 20, 2019
Malachi 1:6-2:9

1. In what areas of your life is it easiest to serve God leftovers or roadkill?
2. What does worshipping God (corporate public worship and/or all of life as worship) cost you? How does your heart engage in thoughtful preparation to be a worshipper?
3. If someone who didn't know God looked at your life, how important would they think Jesus and relationship with God are? Why do you think they would conclude that?
4. Do you regularly feel like a part of the grand story that includes the name of YHWH being praised in all nations? What helps you see our little church and little lives in this big story?
5. What are particular ways you can pray for your pastors and leaders in light of this passage?
6. We are called to be true priests. How does Jesus being the true priest for us impact that calling and how we pursue it?
