

SMALL GROUP Q'S

What Truly Drives Us?

November 12, 2017

Psalm 96

- 1.) How can you tell what are the driving, formative, energizing passions of your life? What would you say yours are, and what evidence would you give to support that?
- 2.) We typically think of our unbelieving neighbors and co-workers as people who have heard the gospel of Jesus Christ and rejected it. What is the “god” they are rejecting like in their minds? Have you talked to them enough to understand the longings of their hearts and their understanding of the grand narrative of history?
- 3.) What things would look, feel, or be different if we corporately embraced the advancement of God’s kingdom as our energizing passion? How would that process be likely to begin taking place? (HINT: “Prayer” or “Holy Spirit” should be in your answer to this question!)

For more information about Southwood or Small Groups visit: southwood.org