Psalm 92:1-2

1. How would you describe the daily, weekly, and monthly rhythm of your life?
2. What situations or people tend to cause you to complain, stress, or grumble?
3. How have you experienced the goodness of giving thanks to God in your own life?
4. Share two or three things about who God is or what He has done in your life this year that give you cause to thank Him.
5. Who is someone outside the family of God with whom you could share your gratitude to God in a thoughtful way?
6. What is one way someone could pray for the rhythm of your life to change to reflect a heart of thanksgiving more?
