"Winning Through Losing"

February 13, 2022

Philippians 1:12-26

1. What are some of the real losses Paul is enduring? Why is it so important that we name these and acknowledge the pain or evil of them in our lives?
2. What are some of the things that produce real excitement or real anger in your life? What are things you would say you have lived for in different seasons of life?
3. What might God be calling you to lose or let go of in order to know more deeply that life is truly found in Christ? What does repentance look like in that area since many of these places we find life are good things?
4. In what situation in your life right now is it difficult for you to see or trust how God could be working for good?
5. What do you think of when you think of death? How does living for Christ change our perspective on what death means?
6. How could someone pray God would give you eyes of faith for his work in a person or place in your life?
