The End of Wisdom
August 1, 2021
Ecclesiastes

1. When was the last time you remember feeling angst at the unexpectedly difficult nature of your life? How did you respond?

2. Do you tend to be naturally cynical or more optimistic about life? What are the strengths that provides and dangers you face with that perspective? Is one more biblical than the other?

3. What are some things in your life that you have found yourself pursuing only to find when you got them that you were unfulfilled or empty-handed?

4. What does it mean in your own words to “fear the Lord.” If this is the beginning and end of wisdom, how do we experience living in this posture more consistently?

5. Will said most of us live in the fear of missing out, of not being enough, or of falling short more than in the fear of the Lord. How would your life look different if God graciously transformed that reality in your heart?

6. What lesson, perspective, or life change are you taking away from this summer’s study of the wisdom books?
